VOLUNTEERS WELCOME!

If you want to get involved with your community, there are plenty of opportunities to do so. Our Social Committee plans the activities, the “fun events” throughout the year and this is a great chance to meet your neighbors. All of our committees work best with volunteers so if you have interests in protecting our covenants, Architectural Review, Welcome Committee, Pool Committee, please let us know.

February Yard of the Month

*Congratulations Ray & Alice Leninger, 300 Eastside View,
For being awarded Yard of the Month!*

Covenant Enforcement:

Most of us follow the covenants, but unfortunately a few do not. This is a reminder of the Top Three most frequently violated covenants. Please do your part to keep Hidden Hills a sought-after neighborhood!

Parking on the Street - creates traffic congestion and hinders pedestrians.

Boats & Trailers - all boats & trailers should be hidden from site

Utility trailers - should be screened from view, either by parking in your garage or back yard, behind a fence.

Parking on the street is the number one violation. Parking on the street in any part of the Development, including the Common Areas, is prohibited.

Meet Your Neighbors!

Dylan Talbot, one of our new board members, will serve as Secretary and has volunteered to assist with our Covenant Committee. In the past Dylan has been in charge of the Yard of the Month selection.

Dylan was born and raised in Tupelo, MS. He graduated from MSU with his degree in exercise science. Dylan is employed with Trinity Rehabilitation and serves as the Director of Rehab Services for Wisteria Gardens Nursing Home in Pearl and Glen Oaks Nursing Center in Lucedale, MS. Outside of work he enjoys following college and professional sports, playing league tennis in the Jackson area, and working in his yard.

Dylan moved to Hidden Hills in 2010 and lives with his two dogs. If you have any question or need anything regarding the neighborhood, please feel free to contact Dylan.

March of Dimes

Jill Gordon, one of our neighborhood residents and Officer at Metropolitan Bank, has been selected Co-Chair for the March for Babies event for the March of Dimes. She is heading up the family teams. They are looking for Sponsors and personal donations. For example, they will have tents set up with face painting, cotton candy, slides, jump houses photo booths... everything is free for the families and children.

Here is the page link... Make your donation here.
